

NAME

Megan Wright

descriptor

CEO from a start-up in Los Angeles, California

QUOTE

What ideals do you share with this company?
Why do you think this company needs you?
What can you bring to this company?

WHO IS IT ?

Megan Wright is a 32 year old, founder and current CEO of a startu-up in Los Angeles, California. She is a tall, white pale skin and blonde, with a 4 year old kid and a very intelligent husband, who is 35 and recently just started his own startup. a very calm and focused person, always trying to help people and pushing them to their limits. She has been pretty

Just sketch your first impression!

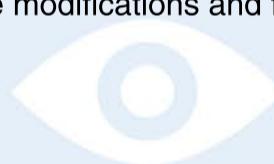

WHAT GOALS?

Megan ultimate dream is to help people in their daily life, while still having a very pleasant and healthy life herself. She wants a perfect balance between work and family. as well as, a long-term goal, she wants to travel the world with her family and possibly visit all the continents.

WHAT ATTITUDE?

Megan is a very calm and focused person, always trying to help people and getting the most out of them. She can be furious when something doesn't go in her way, but at the same time she is always giving her best to make modifications and find the best solution to her problems.

WHICH BEHAVIOUR?

Megan is always surfing on the internet not only for fun, but also to find and connect with new ideas and people from all diffirent countries and cultures. As a CEO of her own start-up, she also stays linked to all sorts of online newspapers so that she can analyze the world around her and apply the knowledge to her company. As being an emotional person, sometimes she doesn't get too close to employees or clients because she doesn't want her emotions to determine her slow decision making process. Mostly she always thinks a lot before taking a determined decisionand also she always tries to get outside ideas and insights that could potentially help her choice.

